

THE ARTFUL MIND

THE SOURCE AND SOUL FOR PROMOTING ARTISTS SINCE 1994

THREE. COSMIC GEMS

GLAZED AND POLYCHROME STONEWARE 2-3"

NINA LIPKOWITZ

Nina Lipkowitz, an artist who is known for experimenting with different mediums is unveiling a few new surprises in her latest exhibition. She will be showing her new kinetic, abstract, clay collages; some rattle when moved. This new body of work will be shown along with multi-medium work on paper and canvas.

Lipkowitz has circled back to her earthy and earthly beginnings. She began her career carving stone, exploring form and surface before moving onto clay; both hand built and wheel thrown.

Later she discovered her passion for line, color, paint creating wild iPad prints. Her most recent body of work combines it all; form, surface, line and color. Her hand built Clay Worlds are heavily textured, glazed and polychromed, some in vivid, some in subtle color reminiscent of her multi-medium work on paper and canvas. Her forms seem to take on a metaphysical significance. Each piece is both a meditation and a work of improvisation. This new work is once again inspired by and mined from Lipkowitz' rich, unconscious, creative world.
